

where the signal lives
RNA carries most of it; mutations add a real but small increment mean OOF AUROC across 118 inhibitors

Weights are fitted by non-negative least squares on inner donor-grouped OOF predictions, floored to the best single block. A high weight means complementary information, not standalone strength.

fitted fusion weights per target-pathway family FLT3 leans on mutations; cell-cycle on differentiation state

