

group timing is accurate median survival per predicted risk tertile individual timing is not 10th–90th percentile spread inside one risk band; per-patient MAE 0.87 y

This is why the report shows a survival curve and a risk group rather than a single predicted number of months for one person.